Business

Water/Sewer: Nothing to report.

Streets: Sam is requesting the council approval on new rear hydrolic blade for the tractor. The current blade has bent so there is no real trade in value, however it is still worth $800. Joe asked Sam if he had a quote. Sam stated the road use fund is healthy that the city can afford the quote of $1980 from Whipp Sales. Sandra stated there is over $12 currently in the road use funds as of current, so doesn't see an issue. Council and Sam discussed. Joe set a motion.

Motion to approve purchase of new rear blade for city tractor from Whipp Sales and Service

Motion Joe Dow Second Kevin Johnson

Mayor: Ron stated he has a Landfill meeting coming up.

Clerk: Sandra stated city could not do disconnects due to weather, however her and Sam were did discuss the shut off since the snow has melted a bit. Sandra stated that the city also got a site visit report from her facetime meeting with IMWCA back, there were no safety issues and facilities were in good order.

Council: Kevin addressed there is a very strong propane odor coming from the Methodist Church. Sandra stated she would contact Gary at Clarinda City Hall in the morning since he manages the church. Sam stated he would contact the propane company in the morning after the meeting as well. Public: Ron asked Moses SR. if he liked to address the council he stated No.
